Journal of Hungarian Terminology

The Journal of Hungarian Terminology is an international, academic, peer-reviewed journal, that appears in Hungarian twice a year.

Its primary objective is to publish the findings of Hungarian terminology and related research and innovation. It also aims to occasionally publish significant international findings in Hungarian, and make the findings of Hungarian research widely known, and through that strengthen the international relations of Hungarian terminology and provide the theoretical and methodological foundations for Hungarian terminology studies.

Within the interdisciplinary field of terminology it favours papers with a linguistic aspect. The language of publication is Hungarian (occasionally English).
