

Course title: Responsible Tourism Consumption	Credits* 5	Course code
Type of the course Lecture Seminar X Practice	Assessment: Oral final examination Essay to be submitted by a set day Participation in classroom exercises Activity in interactive classroom discussion
Semester (according to the standard curriculum): 2
Course availability (according to the standard curriculum): Autumn
Language of instruction (if not in Hungarian): English
Prerequisites (according to the standard curriculum):
Type of the course (compulsory, obligatory elective, free elective): compulsory
Course schedule: http://www.kodolanyi.hu/neptun/
Course objectives: This practical course is proposed to those students who aim at submerge into the ideology of responsibility in the fields of tourism. During lectures the changing features of tourists' behavior will be presented towards responsibility. A great multitude of tourism types are planned to be analyzed from the perspectives of responsibility, mindfulness and sustainability. Students may encounter recent trends, conflicts, fundamental changes in global and local trends of tourism investigating and critically examining adequate and inadequate examples of tourism industry. The course helps to deepen theoretic and practical knowledge concurrently. Learning outcomes (based on professional competences): Knowledge: Students will acquire theoretical and practical knowledge on Responsible Tourism Consumption, furthermore, basic information on tourism studies in general that might be applied in further studies as well. Attitudes: Students' awareness towards complex, interdisciplinary, sustainable, responsible, critical thinking will be enhanced. General competences and skills: Collaborative work, responsible thinking, critical thinking, problem solving, intercultural communication, speaking and learning, strategic management, future planning skills will be developed. Foreign language competences Students can function independently and with a great deal of precision on a wide variety of subjects and in almost any setting without any prior preparation. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Can understand a wide range of demanding, longer texts, and recognize implicit meaning. 2. Can express ideas fluently and spontaneously without much obvious searching for expressions. 3. Can use language flexibly and effectively for social, academic and professional purposes. 4. Can produce clear, well-structured, detailed text on complex subjects, showing controlled use of organizational patterns, connectors and cohesive devices.
Teaching methods: Theoretical and practical lectures, collaborative works, study tours in Budapest/Székesfehérvár
Requirements: (exam's evaluation criteria and list of topics):
Full-time study (workload according to credits*): 5ECTS:

Assessment & Grading:

Assessment is based on (1) the final result of oral exam, (2) evaluation of an essay (written on a chosen visitor attraction (A/4, 3 cm margins, 12 TNR, 1,5 spacing, 1500 characters without spaces), (3) participation seminars, (4) activity during collaborative works.

Grading from 1 (insufficient) to 5 (excellent)

Department/faculty responsible for the course: Department of Interdisciplinary International Studies

Required average students' working hours (number of credits multiplied by 30):

30 contact hours

150 working hours.

Individual assignments (expected number of hours and list of activities):

Course leader: Dr. Levente Halász